The first USMC Scout Sniper Instructor School class!
Happy Birthday, USMC!
And Semper Fi, Major Culver- ya done good!

Our first USMC Scout Sniper Instructor Class, August 1977
Captain Jack Cuddy served as our first Scout Sniper Instructor OIC.
Jack had a long personal sniper heritage dating back to WWII along with his father (whose sniper certificate signed by Captain Walter Walsh, we shamelessly copied).
Gy/Sgt. Carlos Hathcock (whose legend speaks for itself), served as the NCOIC of the School!
Major Dick Culver, the proud "Pappy" of the school, fended off the non-believers; those who were convinced our efforts would fail...
Not getting caught shuffling funds was a minor miracle! We succeeded in spite of ourselves!
